WOMEN ON TOP
MUSIC LADIES HONOURED

The tenth anniversary of the music industry's Women Of The Year Awards, held at London's InterContinental Hotel, saw The X Factor host Kate Thornton belatedly present Sharon Osbourne with her 2002 award, which she was too ill to collect at the time. Winners for 2004 included Radio 2 controller Lesley Douglas and Chrysalis Music managing director Alison Douglas, who received her award from Chrysalis chairman Chris Wright.

MULBERRY GETS MERRY
CHRISTMAS ON BOND STREET

Celebrating the new home range designed by Abigail Lane, Mulberry held a Christmas party for guests including Camilla Rutherford, Pearl Lowe, Lily Donaldson, Luella Bartley and Mulberry's new design director, Stuart Vevers. They quaffed Finlandia vodka cocktails and Henriot champagne, and dined on reindeer, smoked salmon and caviar canapés. Model reindeer and a snow machine helped complete the festive atmosphere.
